WHO WE ARE

Da Silva Foods is the evolution of a family legacy built on more than 70 years of experience in the food industry.

From primary production to the development of high-quality food products, our story has always been rooted in tradition, flavor, trust and a deep commitment to doing things right.

Born from the same passion that shaped Da Silva Steakhouse, Da Silva Foods was created to bring our flavors beyond the restaurant and into the homes, businesses and shelves of today's market.

Today, as part of the fourth generation of the Leal Da Silva family, we are expanding that legacy with products designed for retail, food service and convenience store channels.

WE NOURISH WHAT MATTERS

At Da Silva Foods, we nourish more than people. We nourish family traditions, long-term business relationships, consumer trust and the growth of a brand built through generations.

Our commitment is to create products with carefully selected ingredients, consistent flavor, strong presentation and reliable quality.

WHAT WE DO

Da Silva Foods develops food products with strong identity, premium presentation and a clear value proposition for today's market.

Our portfolio includes products such as jerky, beef sticks, cheeses, sausages and specialty foods, created to stand out on shelves and deliver authentic flavor to consumers.

Each product is developed with attention to ingredient selection, production standards, packaging presentation and shelf-life performance.

FAMILY HERITAGE.
MODERN GROWTH.
PRODUCTS MADE TO STAND OUT.

Da Silva Foods is a proudly family-built brand shaped by four generations of tradition, integrity, and a commitment to honest, transparent food. Rooted in Loyalty Ranch, a legacy spanning over 100 years in milk and beef production, we bring authentic flavors from our Caribbean and Portuguese roots to modern consumers with uncompromising quality.

From Loyalty Ranch premium meats and handcrafted sausage to artisan cheeses crafted through decades of dairy expertise and family favorites, every product follows our "honest label" philosophy: clear ingredients, formulas that taste homemade because they are.

Our products reflect years of evolution in our own restaurants and kitchens, designed for what the table craves, what foodservice demands for quality and performance, and what distributors need for growth and expansion.

Versatile, practical, and flavorful, our portfolio serves home kitchens, restaurants, foodservice, and retail nationwide. As we expand, Da Silva Foods remains guided by quality, transparency, and the belief that good food honors both our century-old roots and the future we're building.
